Sailing Qualifications:

- One crew member presents a valid sailing certificate, proving his competence as Skipper.
- Subject to applicable Greek legislation, qualifications are to be approved by the local Port Authority on the day of departure. Charterer is always liable for the suitability of his qualification and certification.
- Day Skipper Certificates may be rejected by the Port Authority and Charterers are therefore advised to ensure they have an International Certificate of Competence (ICC). Typically, any holder of "Day Skipper" certificate can obtain their ICC from the yachting association that issued their Day Skipper certificate, and the process usually requires nothing more than a simple application.
- Hermes Yachting is not responsible if the skipper certification is rejected by Port Authority and Hermes Yachting reserves the right to require that charterers hire a professional skipper, if their sailing skills are insufficient.

Complaints:

The Client has the right to lodge a complaint if he is not satisfied with the service of Hermes Yachting P.C. or the Hermes Yachting's P.C. base is providing or believes the quality of service is incomplete and/or unsatisfactory. The Client can request a relative compensation upon return only if upon check-out of the vessel he/she submits a written complaint to customerservice@hermesyachting.com with all relevant documentation. The complaint must be issued in writing and lodged no later than 24 hours after the check-out of the vessel. Any complaints made later may affect the Client's rights under the Charter Contract. Hermes Yachting P.C. reserves the right not to take into consideration any complaints received after the aforementioned period or incompletely documented complaints. Hermes Yachting P.C. is obliged to issue the written decision regarding the complaint not later than 14 days following its receipt. Hermes Yachting P.C. reserves the right to postpone the resolution of the complaint a further 14 days with the aim of investigating the complaint and collecting all the necessary information from persons directly or indirectly involved in the case. The highest possible compensation per complaint may equal the value of the advertised part of the service but may not include the already used part of the charter period, nor can it be equal to the full Charter Fee.

Legal Terms:

If the Client is not satisfied with the decision of Hermes Yachting P.C. and the parties cannot find a satisfactory resolution, he/she is entitled to court proceeding. Any disputes not resolved peacefully will be lodged with the Court in Athens, Greece and are subject to Greek Law.

*Hermes Yachting reserves the right to change or modify any of the terms and conditions, prices list, cancellation policy, at any time and in our sole discretion.

Any changes or modification will be effective immediately upon posting of the revisions on this Web page, and you waive any right you may have to receive specific notice of such changes or modifications: www.hermesyachting.com

As with any vacations, we strongly recommend that your sailing trip be insured against any unforeseen circumstances. Extras from independent providers are subject to availability & payable prior to embarkation at the base directly by the Charterer.
